Anne Bardsley

ARTWORK LICENSING PORTFOLIO

About the Artist

Anne Bardsley is a wildlife artist based in Oldham, creating colourful animal portraits that celebrate the individuality and character of wildlife. Her Pop Collection has been digitally reproduced from original acrylic paintings, bringing bold colour and personality to each design. Her work is exhibited and stocked across the UK, with designs available for licensing across a range of commercial products.

LICENSING OVERVIEW

Anne offers a growing collection of wildlife artwork available for commercial licensing. Designs are supplied as high-resolution digital files, prepared for professional print production and suitable for use across a range of product categories.

Available For:

- Wall art
- Stationery
- Calendars
- Textiles
- Home décor
- Giftware
- Packaging
- Accessories

File Formats Provided:

- TIFF (300 DPI)
- PSD (layered where applicable)
- High resolution JPG
- Transparent PNG (on request)

Technical Standards:

- 300 DPI
- Large scale exports available (8000px shortest side)
- RGB (CMYK conversions available)
- Clean, production ready artwork

Pop Collection

The Pop Collection features bold, colourful wildlife portraits with a strong focus on animal character and personality. Digitally reproduced from Anne's original acrylic paintings, the designs combine vibrant colour and clean shapes to create distinctive artwork with plenty of personality.

The collection is available for licensing across a range of product categories.

All Eyes On Me!

One For Sorrow

My Office, Now!

Funkiest Zebra

Peanut

Reporter Of War

Very Foxy

Pigeon Party

Product Applications

The Pop Collection can be used across a variety of products, from greeting cards and stationery to textiles, home décor and accessories. These examples show how the designs can be adapted for different products and retail settings.

@annebardsleyart

www.annebardsleyart.co.uk

annebardsleyart@gmail.com

Oldham, Greater Manchester